general application guidelines

- Nominees' region is determined by chapter affiliation. In the event you are a national member your region will be determined by home address of record.
- Military nominees' region is determined by location of duty station.
- Nominees may not apply for more than one regional award in any given year.
- All documentation must be submitted on 8.5" x 11" paper.
- Do not submit original documentation as it will not be returned.
- When submitting copies of articles or awards send no more than 3-5 of the most recent, not to exceed 15 pages total.
- Deadline is a received by date, not a postmarked by date.

awards selection committees

ACF will have an awards screening and selection committee appointed by the ACF National President for each award. The committees will determine eligibility of candidates and select the semi-finalists or regional winner. All decisions made by the selection committee are final and binding.

Each Awards Selection Committee consists of four members, one from each region. Committee members are current ACF members in good standing, are not nominated for an award in the year they serve and do not participate in the selection of candidates from their home region.

Chef, Pastry Chef and Student Chef of the Year will be coordinated by a member of the Culinary Competition Committee. The competition committee representative does not have a vote, but will provide technical or educational advice as necessary.

chef educator OF THE YEAR award objective

The ACF Chef Educator of the Year award pays tribute to an active culinary educator whose knowledge, skills, expertise, guidance, and direction have enhanced the image of the professional chef and who, by example, has given leadership, guidance, and direction to students seeking a career in the culinary profession. This person demonstrates the ability to help students define and develop their careers by using their skills and abilities to provide a strong foundation for their future success.

candidate eligibility

Candidate must:

1. Be an ACF member in good standing for at least 5 years;
2. Hold ACF certification as a CCE, CSCE or higher;
3. Be an active culinary instructor, culinary chairperson, or culinary dean in charge of curriculum building in a culinary program for the year in which the nomination is made;
4. Have five or more years of full-term teaching in a secondary or postsecondary culinary school;
5. Have a minimum two-year degree in culinary arts or hospitality management; a bachelor's degree or higher can be in any field; and
6. Be a United States Citizen or have a permanent resident green card.

NOTE: Past regional winners may reapply after 5 years. Past national winners cannot reapply. Nominees may apply annually.

application guidelines

A complete nomination package includes:

- The completed application form;
- A professional résumé and biography of the candidate, not to exceed two pages;
- List of professional education development activities;
- Letter of recommendation from a school administrator;
- A letter of commitment from the candidate agreeing to attend his or her respective regional conference and the national convention, if selected; and

- A high resolution, digital, color photograph of candidate in white chef's coat. The digital photograph must meet the following requirements: 300 dpi (dots per inch) in a .tif or .jpeg format, and at least 1200 by 1600 pixels. Picture can be emailed to events@acfcchefs.net or submitted on a CD.

Candidates will provide all needed materials for the application and selection process before the deadline. Applications received after the deadline will be returned to the candidate for submission the following year.

selection process: regional

Regional winners will be chosen by a selection committee based on the submitted applications. Committee decisions are final.

The winners will be announced at each regional conference Awards Gala. These finalists will advance to the national competition.

selection process: national

The four regional winners will participate in a lecture/demonstration for a panel of judges.

The national winner will be announced at national convention during the President's Grand Ball.
